

Deputy Wins Top Academic Achievement Award

Deputy Sidney Bolden graduated from Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy on 10 November 2005. Sheriff Charlie Ray Fox, Jr. is proud to announce that Deputy Bolden received the Top Academic Achievement Award. Earning this award is quite a task considering the competition is made up of ten separate jurisdictions.

The ceremony was hosted by Edward J. Evers, Director Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy, with special guest speaker Superintendent Jeffrey Frazier, Northern Neck Regional Jail. Superintendent Frazier expressed the importance of organization and communication among Detention Center Officers.

Deputy Bolden has been a member of the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office for since 1993, as an Emergency Communications Specialist and in February of 2005

Deputy Bolden made the leap to a Deputy for the Adult Detention Center. "Dedication and teamwork is a huge part of my operation", said Sheriff Fox. "I am please to welcome another awarding winning deputy to my staff". Congratulations to Deputy Bolden from the entire Fauquier County Sheriff's Office.
